

The Centre for the Study of Religion,
and
The Faculty of Divinity, Trinity College

presents

---

The First Three Years of Christianity

Professor Gerd Lüdemann

Professor of the History and Literature of Early Christian Studies at Georg-August-University Göttingen, Germany

TIME: Tuesday, October 14, 2008
7:30 pm – 9:00 pm

PLACE: Combination Room
Trinity College
6 Hoskin Avenue
Toronto

Purchase tickets at door $10 (students free)

Purchase in advance:

Department of Development and Alumni Affairs

Trinity College, 6 Hoskin Ave., Room 202

416-978-2651 (9 am - 5 pm)

Inquiries:	Professor Abraham H. Khan, khanah@chass.utoronto.ca	416-978-3039
	Centre for the study of Religion, Dept. of Religion	416-978-2395
	Faculty of Divinity, Trinity College	416-978-2133

---

Gerd Lüdemann is a distinguished scholars of early Christianity. His recent publications include Jesus after 2000 Years (2000), Paul, the Founder of Christianity (2002), The Resurrection of Christ (2004), The Acts of the Apostles (2005), “Acts of Impropriety in Luke –Acts” (TJT 2008), and Eyes that See Not: The Pope Looks at Jesus (2008) and “An Embarrassing Misrepresentation” (the latter two reviews of Pope Benedict’s book on Jesus).